Swiss-Iraqi filmmaker Samir (Forget Baghdad: Jews and Arabs—The Iraqi Connection) has made another intriguing documentary, this time in 3-D, Iraqi Odyssey. The film covers 50 years of family and national history. A number of Samir's relatives were members of the Iraqi Communist Party and the film, inadvertently or not, stands as an indictment of the disastrous Iraqi Stalinists' policy of allying themselves with one wing after another of the Iraqi military and bourgeoisie.
